Engagement with Dissenting Shareholders

Shareholders are further advised that, whilst ordinary resolutions number 12 and 13, relating to the remuneration policy and non-binding advisory vote on Grit's implementation report on the remuneration policy, were supported by the majority of shareholders, the Company does recognise that they were each voted against by 30.32% and 29.73% respectively, of the votes exercised by the Company's shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the AGM.

The executives of Grit have taken this on board and are committed to achieving a greater understanding of the underlying reasons that has seen some shareholders being unable to support these resolutions. The executives of Grit will initiate a consultation with the Company's shareholders including dissenting shareholders on Wednesday, 22 January 2025 at 2 p.m. Mauritian time (10 a.m. UK time) via a telephone conference to further understand their position and perspectives on these resolutions.

All shareholders are asked to confirm their participation to the company secretary by e-mail at Grit@intercontinentaltrust.com by no later than close of business on Wednesday, 15 January 2025, who will provide dial-in details for the telephone conference. Shareholders are further invited to forward their concerns/questions on the remuneration policy to the company secretary in writing by close of business on Wednesday, 15 January 2025.

An update on the views received from shareholders and actions taken will be published no later than six months after the meeting with the dissenting shareholders.

In accordance with Listing Rules 9.6.2 and 9.6.3 of the UK Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA"), a copy of the resolutions passed at the AGM has been submitted to the FCA via the National Storage Mechanism and will shortly be available to the public for inspection at the link below:
