COMMENTS

1 Consolidation and Accounting Standards

The abridged financial statements for the quarter and nine months ended 30 September 2026 are unaudited. The accounting policies and standards used in the preparation of these abridged unaudited financial statements are consistent with those used in the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2025.

2 General Comments

The conflict in the Middle East, which started at the end of February 2026, has weighed on the region throughout the year. It disrupted Gulf airspace and major aviation hubs, reducing connectivity and traveller confidence in our key source markets, and added economic pressure through higher travel and energy costs. Year-to-date tourist arrivals to September 2026 remained under pressure, with declines in two of our three main destinations; namely the Maldives and the Seychelles. Mauritius was the only destination to remain positive with a 3.4% increase. In the Seychelles, despite a third-quarter rebound of +7.3%, the destination did not recover the earlier shortfall. The Maldives, our most competitive market, remained below last year at -3.9%.
The resulting year-to-date tourist arrival figures for the nine months ended September were as follows:

JAN-SEP	2026	2025	2026 VS 2025
MAURITIUS	1,042,241	1,008,098	3.4%
MALDIVES	1,571,977	1,636,489	-3.9%
SEYCHELLES	263,887	283,290	-6.8%

Owned and Managed Resorts Performances in our Main Destinations

As reported previously, geopolitical tensions and its ripple effects impacted our performances during the early part of 2026. This situation was compounded with falls in occupancies recorded at Constance Prince Maurice, Constance Halaveli and Constance Ephelia due to the rooms closed for refurbishments during the second and third quarters. Notwithstanding the above, the Group delivered a resilient performance with good average room rates generated by our Mauritian and Seychelles properties. Our hotels in the Maldives remained hardest hit, both in terms of occupancies and average room rates, contributing to a loss for the period.
As a result, for the nine months, the Group's average occupancy declined to 63.7% (2025: 73.2%), leading to a reduction in RevPAR to MUR 13,120 (2025: MUR 14,755), while Trev PAR eased to MUR 20,838 (2025: MUR 23,962).

3 Group Results

Nine-month revenue stood at MUR 4,268 million (Sep 2025: MUR 4,288 million). Operating costs were well maintained through disciplined management of variable costs; however, fixed costs continued to affect the hotels where room inventory was partially unavailable during the quarter. Consequently, EBITDA stood at MUR 875 million compared to MUR 1,025 million for the same period last year.
Finance costs on financial debt increased to MUR 375 million (Sep 2025: MUR 354 million), driven by additional facilities and increases in interest rate. Finance costs on lease liabilities decreased slightly to MUR 202 million (Sep 2025: MUR 206 million), resulting in total finance costs of MUR 577 million (Sep 2025: MUR 560 million).
Share of results from associates amounted to MUR 170 million (Sep 2025: MUR 195 million), due to the reduced room inventory at Constance Ephelia.
Income tax expense amounted to MUR 96 million (Sep 2025: MUR 102 million). After accounting for taxation, the Group recorded a net loss of MUR 176 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2026, compared with a profit of MUR 60 million in the corresponding period of 2025.

4 Outlook

Given the performance of October 2026 and the booking trends ahead, we remain optimistic for the last quarter 2026. In Mauritius, demand remains robust across all properties, supported by healthy booking momentum. In the Maldives, forward bookings in both resorts are encouraging and should match last year's figures. Our Seychelles properties are expected to close the year positively, with healthy demand supporting year-end revenue performance.
Given the encouraging forward bookings and improving trading conditions, the Group is expected to generate a healthy profit for the last quarter, contributing to a positive result for the year.
